Administrative Note
Messmer High School opened in 1926 as a diocesan high school. It was staffed by the School Sisters of Notre Dame; its first principal was Rev. Celestine Bittle. In 1928 the school's name was changed to Messmer High School. During the 1940's enrollment peaked at 1600 and gradually declined to the point where, in 1984, the Archdiocese withdrew financial support. That year Messmer became an independent, private high school. Though it retained its old name, it is not affiliated with the Archdiocese.

Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.
The collection consists primarily of financial records of a Catholic diocesan high school (1929-1984). It also contains yearbooks (1929-1984), photographs, and annual reports (1933-1978).
