Administrative Note

The Catholic Schools Staff Development Association was created in 1990 in order to oversee the activities carried out for improving the efforts of Catholic school professionals associated with the schools within Region 6 of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. These included specially designed educational courses, social events, and monetary support to schools and students within the association’s jurisdiction through grants and scholarships. Overall, the Catholic Schools Staff Development Association was able to achieve a consistent amount of success among all of their education and community support efforts until 2009, when the association was dissolved.
